GENERAL COMMENTS

The Africa report is presented in four sub-sections reporting on the activities of the four sub-regions in the region: Eastern Africa, Central Africa, Western Africa and Southern Africa.

General to the region, African elephant range States met in Mombasa, Kenya on 23-35 June 2008 in accordance with Decision 14.75 and 14.79 on the African elephant and ivory trade. Nigeria, Somalia and Angola however, did not participate in this meeting. At the meeting, the regional representatives to the Standing Committee requested the parties in sub-regions to submit their country reports for eventual compilation into regional report for presentation during this present meeting.

At the time of coming to the meeting, no inputs had been received by the representatives. This report is therefore compiled based on information provided during this meeting as presented by the members participating as follows: Kenya and United Republic of Tanzania from Eastern Africa sub-region, Ghana and Mali from the Western Africa sub-region, Democratic Republic of Congo and Cameroon from the Central Africa sub-region and Zambia, Namibia, Botswana, Zimbabwe and South Africa from the Southern Africa sub-region.

EASTERN AFRICA-REP. KENYA

National Laws for implementation of the Convention and the National Legislation Project

Discussions were held with the Chief, Legal Affairs and Trade Policy Unit of the Secretariat in August 2007 separately with Uganda and Kenya to seek technical comments from the Secretariat on the Wildlife trade policy and Wildlife bill in Uganda and Draft Wildlife policy and Bill for Kenya under review. Written comments from the Secretariat on the draft Kenya Wildlife policy and Bill have been received and incorporated into the documents for further consideration and finalization before presentation to Parliament for direction.

The Chief, Legal Affairs and Trade Policy Unit of the Secretariat held consultations in April 5-8, 2008 with the United Republic of Tanzania on how to improve national legislation for implementation of the Convention. The comments from the Secretariat have been received and incorporated for wider consideration.

Implementation of Decisions and Resolutions of the Convention

Decisions on the African elephant and Ivory trade.

Kenya and Rwanda participated in a consultative meeting of 15 countries from the Eastern, Central and Western Africa in Bamako, Mali in February 2008 and later in Mombassa, Kenya in June 2008 to discuss ways of implementing the decision.

All the parties except Rwanda responded in time to the Elephants and ivory trade questionnaire by the deadline of 31 December 2007 to help implement the Action Plan for the control of trade in elephant ivory as amended and adopted at CoP14 and referred to in Decision 13.26(Rev CoP14). Rwanda made a late submission of the questionnaire and receipt was confirmed at the Secretariat.

The entire sub region Parties participated in the African elephant meeting held in Mombasa, Kenya, June 23-25, 2008 in accordance with Decision 14.75 and Decision 14.79 and contributed to the process for implementing the decisions on the African elephant.

SOUTHERN AFRICA; REP: ZAMBIA

National Laws for the implementation of the Convention and National Legislation Project

Countries with category 2 legislation namely South Africa, Botswana, Namibia and Zambia are currently working on upgrading national legislation for the effective implementation of CITES.

Zambia is currently reviewing her Wildlife policy and Act to include stiffer penalties of protected and endangered species maintaining the issues of conservation and livelihoods.

Capacity Building

In April 2008, law enforcement officers in Botswana were trained by the MIKE CCU on MIKE data management techniques.

Law enforcement

Southern African countries are enforcing the provisions of CITES and are committed to regional law enforcement meetings and initiatives such as the Rhino and Elephant Security group meetings, transfrontier programmes and consultative forums.

The transfrontier programmes have consolidated cross-border security measures to prevent illegal trafficking in wildlife and other illegal activities.

Despite not having a sub-regional representative, Southern African countries are committed to the implementation of the MIKE programme and are providing information to TRAFFIC on ETIS.

South Africa has appointed environmental management inspectors to enforce specific environmental management Acts. South Africa further held a meeting to discuss rhino management and enforcement issues with all stakeholders including private farmers. This will hopefully strengthen the current regulatory system.

The promulgation of the elephant norms and standards and the subsequent redrafting of improved management plans by different tiers of government responsible for conservation have enhanced elephant management strategies in South Africa.

Zimbabwe instituted an emergency rhino strategy aiming at addressing the increasing rhino poaching.

Participation in regional and international meetings

Zambia, South Africa, Namibia, Botswana and Zimbabwe participated in the 23rd Animals and 17th Plants Committee meetings held in April 2008.

The countries including Mozambique took part in the African elephant Action Plan meeting held in Mombasa in June 2008.

South Africa and Zimbabwe had a meeting on cross border rhino issues, facilitated by TRAFFIC

All SADC countries attended a regional meeting held in Mozambique on sustainable use issues.

Namibia hosted a best hunting practices sub-regional workshop to promote best ethics in the sustainable use of wildlife resources.

International collaboration

Zambia and Namibia visited the Chinese CITES Management Authority to increase collaboration in ivory management. Zambia also visited Botswana and Namibia to learn lessons on ivory management.

General

In an effort to increase and restore the rhino range, South Africa and Namibia donated rhinos to Zambia where they have since established a founder population and are fully protected.

Elephant population surveys were conducted in Namibia, South Africa and Zimbabwe.

A leopard population habitat viability assessment will be conducted in Botswana, Namibia, South Africa, Zambia and Zimbabwe
