

MODEL INVENTORY FOR THE DECLARATION OF NATIONAL OR PRIVATELY HELD STOCKPILES OF CAPTIVE-BRED OR CONFISCATED ASIAN BIG CAT SPECIMENS¹

Inventories submitted to the Secretariat may be summarized.
However, the following table gives an example that could be used to provide a full inventory.

STOCKS OF CAPTIVE-BRED OR CONFISCATED ASIAN BIG CAT BODY PARTS AND DERIVATIVES²
Species	Type of Specimen³	Quantity and unit of measure	Source (e.g. seized, confiscated, captive breeding facility)	Privately held	Government held (federal, regional, local)

¹ The term 'specimen' as defined in Article I, paragraph b) i) and ii) of the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora

² Exclude pre-Convention specimens from your answer

³ (b) "Specimen" means:
(i) any animal or plant, whether alive or dead;
(ii) in the case of an animal: for species included in Appendices I and II, any readily recognizable part or derivative thereof; . . .

Has your country implemented any management practices and controls to ensure adequate control of such stocks?

Yes

No

If yes, please explain what steps have been taken to guarantee the security of these stockpiles.

Has your country destroyed any Asian big cat specimens from stockpiles, with the exception of those used for educational or scientific purposes?

Yes

No

If yes, please specify including the volume of the destroyed stocks and the method used.