

NOTIFICATION TO THE PARTIES

No. 2014/010

Geneva, 26 February 2014

CONCERNING:

MADAGASCAR

Trade in Dalbergia spp. and Diospyros spp.: zero export quota

1. At its 16th meeting (CoP16, Bangkok, March, 2013), the Conference of the Parties agreed to the inclusion in Appendix II of the populations of Madagascar of the species in the genera Dalbergia and Diospyros. The listings are annotated #5, indicating that the only parts and derivatives included are "logs, sawn wood and veneer sheets". The Conference of the Parties also adopted Decision 16.152 on Malagasy ebonies (Diospyros spp.) and Malagasy rosewoods (Dalbergia spp.) and a related action plan.
2. Paragraph 4 of that action plan states that:

Madagascar shall ... put in place an embargo on export of stocks of these timbers until the CITES Standing Committee has approved the results of a stockpile audit and use plan to determine what component of the stockpile have been legally accumulated and can be legally exported.
3. In Notification to the Parties No. 2013/039 of 4 September 2013, the Secretariat reported on the actions being taken to improve the management of Dalbergia and Diospyros species in Madagascar and that Madagascar had established a zero export quota for these species until 13 February 2014.
4. The CITES Management Authority of Madagascar has informed the Secretariat that the zero export quota for Dalbergia and Diospyros species has been extended until 14 April 2014.
5. In the meantime, the Secretariat has continued to receive information about very large shipments of timber of these species being exported illegally from Madagascar.
6. All Parties are therefore urged to continue to assist Madagascar by checking shipments of timber, in order to stop any illegal trade in specimens of Dalbergia and Diospyros species from that country. Parties that seize illegal shipments of timber of these species from Madagascar are requested to communicate information about these seizures to the Management Authority of Madagascar and to the Secretariat.
