The Checklist for Evaluating An Appropriate and Acceptable Destination for African elephant

Name of Introducer:
Female: number age
Male: number
age

Fundamental needs
- Permits and licenses of animals keeping
- Qualified veterinary
- Qualified staffs of animal care
- Feasibility of long-term care

Dietary
- Food and nutritional requirement for individuals at different growth stages
- Access to potable water
- Diverse ways of providing food and water

Physical housing
- Qualified design drawing
- Necessary facilities
- Indoor size and space, substrate, temperature
- Outdoor size, substrate, shelter and playground

Care and Health
- Room for sick or debilitated animals
- Innocuous treatment of feces and urine
- Group composition and training program
- Health check, birth and death records
- Environmental enrichment facilities

Safety and Isolation
- Plan for safe transportation and immobilization
- Arrangements for quarantine and isolation
- Emergency plan

Conservation
- Support In-situ conservation project
- Breeding programme
- Public education

If the elephant has to stay in a temporary place for more than three months, in addition to the destination, the temporary place should be evaluated too.