

Fourteenth meeting of the Conference of the Parties
The Hague (Netherlands), 3-15 June 2007

Procedures for media accreditation

Only bona fide representatives of the mass media – press, photo, radio, television, and film – will be accredited to cover this meeting. To avoid delays upon arrival at the meeting, please submit by 11 May 2007 the Media accreditation form, together with a letter of assignment from your editor or bureau chief and a photocopy of your valid professional press card to:

*CITES Secretariat
International Environment House, Geneva
11-13, chemin des Anémones, CH-1219 Châtelaine, Switzerland
Telephone: +41 (22) 917 83 26/56/242, Fax number: +41 (22) 797 34 64
Email: fatma.gordon@unep.ch*

The Secretariat has posted a Media accreditation form on the CITES website (www.cites.org). Media representatives who have access to the Internet are encouraged to register on-line. Note that no double accreditation is allowed (e.g. as both press and delegate, or as both press and NGO).

Our accreditation procedures should be read in conjunction with UN-DPI procedures for media accreditation (<http://www.un.org/media/accreditation/require.htm>). According to the UN accreditation policy, NGO press officers do not represent the media, even if assigned by an NGO newsletter, and they MUST be exempted from press conferences.

In The Hague, press passes can be picked up at the media accreditation counter upon presentation of an identification (passport, official national press pass, driver's license, etc.) or of a photo press pass from any United Nations Centre.

For press releases and other information on the meeting, please contact the CITES Secretariat at the above coordinates or visit the CITES website.
