

NOTIFICATION TO THE PARTIES

No. 2020/021

Geneva, 10 March 2020

CONCERNING:

Twenty-fifth meeting of the Plants Committee

Date and venue

1. On behalf of the Chair of the Plants Committee, the Secretariat hereby informs Parties that the 25th meeting of the Plants Committee will be held on Friday 17 July 2020 and from Monday 20 July to Thursday 23 July 2020. On Friday 17 July, the meeting will be held jointly with the 31st meeting of the Animals Committee. The meetings will take place at the following address:

Registration

3. All participants must register in advance for this meeting. Registration for the meeting will soon open online. Early registration is recommended for participants who require an entry visa to Switzerland and for Committee members who are seeking financial support.
4. For Parties, States not a Party to the Convention and representatives of the United Nations, its Specialized Agencies, and the International Atomic Energy Agency, as well as organizations that have been accredited to attend any of the last two meetings of the Plants Committee (see Annex), the registration will take place as follows:
 - a) Registration: CITES focal points (Management Authorities and a focal person for observer organizations) are invited to register the official representative(s) of their Governments or organizations to this meeting and provide their respective contact information. An exclusive registration link will be sent to all focal points. For the Animals and Plants Committees, the Scientific Authorities will be copied on the email sent to Management Authorities. Using the exclusive registration link, focal points must enter the contact details of the persons representing their Government or organization.

- b) Nomination: Focal points must send an official nomination letter from their Governments or organizations addressed to the Secretary-General by e-mail at registration@cites.org. The deadline for nomination is 30 days prior to the meeting for all participants, i.e. by 17 June 2020, in accordance with Rule 6 of the Rules of Procedure of the Plants Committee.
 - c) Confirmation of registration: Once the official nomination letters are received, the nominations will be validated and each participant will receive an automated individual confirmation of registration named "PRIORITY PASS" (PP) by e-mail. Upon registration, it is important to always provide a valid e-mail address for each participant so that the PP can reach the participant without any difficulty. Each participant will also receive a visa assistance letter which needs to be submitted together with the visa application, whenever a visa is needed.
5. Representatives of intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations and the private sector that have not participated in one of the last two Plants Committee's meetings (see Annex) or that have changed their by-laws must request an invitation from the Chair through the Secretariat by e-mail at registration@cites.org at least 30 days before the meeting. The deadline is 17 June 2020. In addition, they must attach the by-laws of their organizations, as well as information about the goals and the activities of their organization (mission statement) that are relevant to CITES. They must also send a curriculum vitae or information about their personal knowledge and expertise in science, nature conservation, or trade in and sustainable use of CITES species. They must also indicate to which agenda item they intend to contribute based on their expertise and knowledge or give specific reasons why they would like to attend the forthcoming PC meeting.

Credentials and visas to Switzerland

6. In accordance with Rule 8 of the Rules of Procedure of the Plants Committee, representatives of Parties, representatives of any State not a Party to the Convention and representatives of the United Nations, its Specialized Agencies, and the International Atomic Energy Agency will be required to present official credentials, which may be submitted to the Secretariat in advance or on the first day of attendance at the meeting.
7. The Secretariat reminds Parties and organizations that their representatives may require visas. A visa assistance letter will be sent automatically to all participants whose nomination has been validated. The Secretariat reminds Parties and organizations that such letters will be sent only after it has received an official nomination letter.

Financial assistance

8. The Secretariat is unable to provide any financial assistance for participants other than for members of the Plants Committee from developing countries.

Hotel reservations

9. All participants, including sponsored delegates, are requested to make their own hotel bookings: information about hotels can be found at the following link: <https://www.geneve.com/en/sleep/online-booking>.

Documentation

10. Participants may submit working documents for discussion at the meeting in accordance with Rules 20 and 21 of the Rules of Procedure of the Plants Committee. These documents must be provided to the Secretariat at least 60 days before the meeting that is by 18 May 2020. Documents received after this date cannot be translated. Documents submitted should not exceed 12 pages and use the template available at: <https://cites.org/eng/com/pc/index.php>.

11. Working documents for the meeting will be placed on the CITES website as they become available. Printed copies of all working documents available will be distributed to members and alternate members of the Plants Committee who request them. The Secretariat will also provide copies by post or by email to any pre-registered representative of a Party who requests them in advance. Requests should be sent to info@cites.org. However, in order to make savings on printing costs, the Secretariat will not distribute sets of documents at the meeting. Consequently, all participants are requested to bring their own set.
12. Documents may also be submitted at any time for information purposes in accordance with Rule 23 of the Rules of Procedure.

Contingency

13. The situation concerning coronavirus (COVID-19) is evolving rapidly. The Secretariat is proceeding with arrangements for the AC31 and PC25, but we are very much concerned for the health and safety of all our participants and will inform Parties and observers immediately if there is any need to change the plans for the meetings. In the meantime, Parties and observers may wish to consider contingency arrangements such as purchasing refundable travel tickets.
