

COVENTION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN ENDANGERED SPECIES OF WILD FAUNA AND FLORA

POLAND

BIENNIAL REPORT

2007 – 2008

Warsaw, May 2009

PART 1 - CITES QUESTIONS

Note: Part 1 is composed exclusively of the questions included in the CITES Biennial Report format, approved at the 13th meeting of the Conference of the Parties to CITES, October 2004.

* Document as discussed and agreed at COM 45 held on 14 November 2008.

| Additional comments | * According to the national law (Nature Conservation Act of 16th April 2004, with further amendments) holders of live animals including amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals of species covered by EU regulations on wildlife trade (CITES species) are obliged to submit written declaration of possession concerning CITES listed species to appropriate district authority, in order to register specimens they keep. Obligation of registration does not apply to Zoological Gardens and persons involved in animal trade, carrying on an economic activity (e.g. owners of pet shops, sellers) as well as persons keeping CITES animals temporarily for the medical treatment and rehabilitation purposes. The abovementioned sellers are obliged however to possess documents stating legal origin of an animal they sell and to pass with that animal, aforementioned documents to the buyer (e.g. copy of CITES import permit, permit for acquisition from nature, and in case of birth in captivity – a document issued by district veterinary service, confirming animal birth in captivity, or other document stating legality of origin). * - Prohibitions referring to harvesting, possessing, transport, sale and purchase apply to all native protected species (including native CITES species). Exemptions from mentioned prohibitions can be granted only by the Minister of the Environment, who issues certain permission. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

Annex II - C6, C7, C8, C9

Violations of the CITES provisions (included in national and EU law) result in sanctions such as penalty of detention or fine (for offences) and sentence of imprisonment from 3 months up to 5 years (for crimes).

In accordance with the Nature Conservation Act of 16 April 2004 the following actions are considered as offences:

- not declaring the keeping of live, reptiles, birds and mammals of species covered by EU regulations on wildlife trade (CITES species) to the register,
- not possessing and not providing to the buyer documents referring to legal origin of the animal which is being sold (this obligation applies to sellers and other persons carrying on an economic activity related to wildlife trade).

According to the mentioned Act the following actions, among others, are considered as crimes:

- transporting and border-crossing of CITES specimens without necessary permits,
- not presenting the import notification at the border Customs office (obligation concerns Annex C and D specimens),
- using specimens of CITES species for the purposes different then those indicated in the permit or certificate,
- carrying out commercial activities concerning CITES specimens without appropriate documents stating their legal acquisition (origin) and without fulfilment of conditions provided in CITES related regulations.

The most frequent crime against endangered species of fauna and flora is border-crossing without necessary permits and offering for sale without sufficient documents stating their legal origin.

Sentences in the majority of court cases imposed fines and forfeitures of seized specimens. So far, the most severe penalty of imprisonment (from 3 months up to 5 years) has not been imposed (there were cases where it was applied only in suspension). There were also cases where courts also imposed on the convicts obligation of work for the public purposes.

Furthermore, people who were convicted (penalized) for the infringement of provisions regarding wildlife trade can be refused by CITES Management Authority to obtain a CITES permit within the period of 3 years from the date of conviction (art. 61 p. 7 of Nature Conservation Act of 16 April 2004). There was no such case in the reporting period.
