

Japan

Japan uses a conversion factor 1.6 which is used to convert recorded processed weight of Shortfin mako shark caught by longline fishers to live weight for reporting to RFMOs as annual catch. The conversion factor was determined based on an analysis using data collected by ICCAT observers.